Memorandum For: Office of Security, Duty Office

Subject: Headquarters Compound Access Approval for Members of the US Army Band, Interservice Color Guard, and Army Chaplain
on Friday, 1 November 1985.

1. Access to the Headquarters Building and compound is requested for the military and military-related personnel listed in the attachments to this memorandum. Access is requested for Friday, 1 November 1985, from approximately 0800 to 1200 hours, to participate in the Cornerstone Laying Ceremony.

2. Participants are members and staff of the U.S. Army Band, members of an Interservice Color Guard and the Chaplain of the Military District of Washington.

3. Three escorts from the Public Affairs Office will provide liaison support and will remain in the ceremony area with the participants.

4. A stage crew of approximately 7 people will be arriving at about 0800 at the South Loading Dock. The remaining participants will be arriving about 0845 at the auditorium entrance. The Public Affairs escorts will be onsite for both the 0800 and the 0845 arrivals.

5. Questions regarding this request should be directed to me,
